TRADITION

What makes Mississippi College different? The answers are numerous but the truth is obscure. MC is rooted in traditionalism—academic standards, chapel, curfew, two a.m. truck stop raids, dateless weekends; open dorms once a year, squeal night and Chris Butler. MC students are confronted with so many traditions that one may wonder if there is any time left for creativity, innovation, and exploration. The question is easily resolved.

The various students tried toga and pajama parties (with music). The student newspaper, "Collegian", once again became a weekly newspaper instead of a monthly. Some students spent the summer in England and China under study programs. MC's talent was exhibited in the play HARVEY and others by the Tribal Players. Professor Dr.

Ewing went to Mainland China to participate in the first U.S. Master's Running Tour of China. As always, the Lecture Series brought distinguished guests such as Senator John C. Stennis, while the concert series provided a variety of musical entertainment including Air Supply. And last but not least, the everlasting Chester Swor, "Heavens to Betsy".

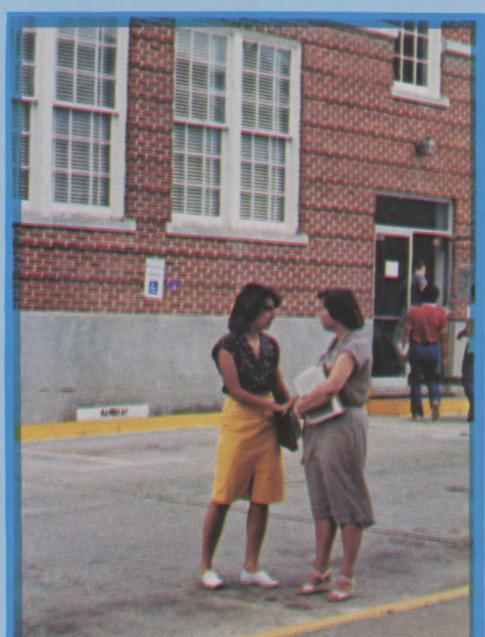

Mississippi College is not stagnant when it comes to student affairs and intellectual and cultural opportunities.

Mississippi College's goal as an educational institution is to cultivate academic excellence. Its prestigious record of Rhodes Scholars, doctors, lawyers, and successful businessmen and women is evidence of this achievement. However, an MC education provides more than intellectual growth. Each student makes new friends and then creates lasting friendships, (student or faculty). Big Brother and Big Sister are established through the various social clubs (tribes) on campus. Opportunities for community involvement in service programs or clubs such as Civitan and Circle K allow students to be exposed to the needs of others outside the College circle.

While MC broadens the mind intellectually and helps to shape one's character, it also allows for spiritual exploration and growth. Mississippi College is owned and operated by the Mississippi Baptist Convention. In the historic Baptist tradition, the College seeks to provide opportunities for the realization of personal values, the achievement of social competence, and preparation for a life of useful service. Mississippi College endeavors to offer a liberal arts program of high quality set in the context of Christian values and ideals.

Mississippi College stands apart from other educational institutions because it is a place where people are committed to increasing their knowledge and discovering the truth through both traditional and unconventional methods. It is a place where people learn acceptance and respect individualism. A little closer to heaven? Maybe.

EVENTS

DERBY DAY

After a two-year absence from the top, perennial Derby Day powerhouse Kissimee regained the Derby Day Championship in intertribal competition in Alumni Hall.

KT amassed 37 points to easily outdistance second place Swannanoa, which had its strongest showing in recent years with 32.5 points. Laguna finished third with 30.5 points and defending champion Nenamoosha brought up the rear with 29 points.

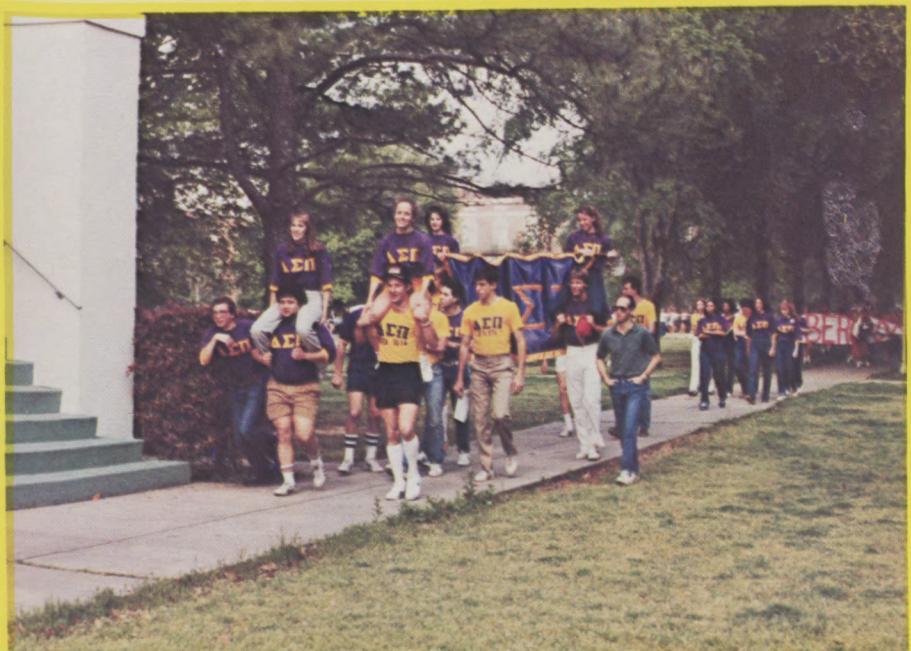

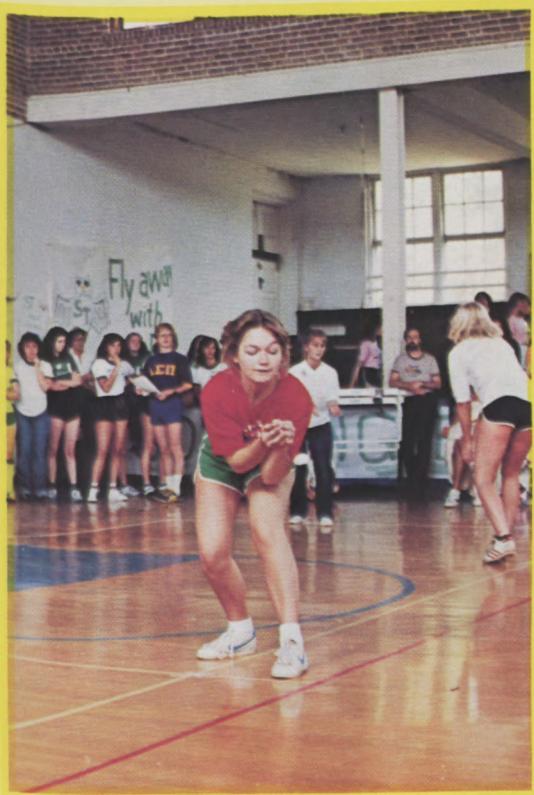

Kissimee built an early lead, finishing either first or second in each of the first four events, and withstood a late rally by Swannanoa and Laguna. KT won four of the 13 events, but the key to their victory was balance, as they did not finish last in any event. NT also won four events, but finished last in six.

Derby Day is an annual event sponsored by Delta Sigma Pi, one of MC's professional business fraternities.

The winning trophy was presented to KT's maid. (Each tribe was represented by a guy dressed up to resemble a female).

MISS MC 1891

Cindy Fulton

Miss Cindy Fulton, a 21-year old junior from Philadelphia, was crowned as the 1981 Miss Mississippi College in the College's pageant entitled "Star Struck". Cindy's talent consisted of a personal piano and vocal arrangement of "The Mississippi Song".

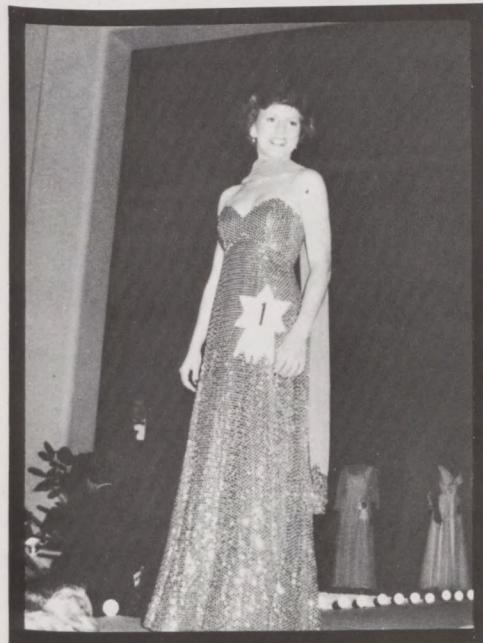

"The pageant was a lot of fun for me; it gave me an opportunity to get to know a lot of people that I hadn't known before," commented Cindy. She added, "The full effect hasn't set in yet, but I am very excited to be representing Mississippi College. Along with the honor of being Miss Mississippi College, Cindy will receive a Miss America Trophy, a monetary wardrobe allowance, a designer gown and a $500 scholarship. Cindy is a business management major and was sponsored by the business fraternity Delta Sigma Pi.

The four other finalists were first alter., Linda Kay Johnson; second alter. and Miss Congeniality, Gail Harris; third alter., Teresa Magee; and fourth alter., Michele Albritton. Co-directors for the 1981 pageant were Miss Cindy Malone (Miss MC 1980) and Mr. Mark Hamilton.

Twenty girls who competed in the pageant this year were judged on the basis of their private interview, swimsuit competition and evening gown competition. The Master of Ceremonies was Alan Bee, an account executive for WSLI radio. Entertainment was provided by the Firewood Brothers, Cindy Malone, Micky Henderson, and the Mississippi College Dancers.

Homecoming

Saturday, October 24, dawned crisp and beautiful on the day's festivities, which began with alumni and mother-daughter receptions and luncheons. The brisk air set the mood as the Homecoming Parade proceeded through Clinton to the beat of the MC marching band. Nenamoosha fired up the crowd as it led the way on the big red fire truck. Phi Beta Lambda was also truckin' on. Woodsy the Owl and Swannanoa waved a cheery hello to the crowd, while the Circle K trench coats (those wild and crazy guys) were "The Untouchables". Spreading a purple trail of candy and good wishes was the MC Student Nursing Honor Society.

The Sophomore class' caterpillar "inched" its way to 1st place in the float competition as its various segments spelled out "Inch to Victory"; Civitan gobbled up 2nd place with an oversized bag of dog food sitting beside a dog house bearing the title, "Puppy Chow the Pacers". In 3rd place was KT's elephant trampling a UTM football player with the slogan, "KT says, 'Stomp the Pacers'".

The patio show, hosted by Michael Smith, warmed up the crowd with songs and dance by the Naturals, Jack Wood, and the KT Beaus plus Jim Grantham. Alumni and friends then moved to Robinson Field to cheer the Choctaws on to an exciting game against the University of Tennessee at Martin. The score wavered back and forth right up to the buzzer for the halftime show.

"Inch to Victory"

Halftime Show

The show began as the MC marching Band formed a musical backdrop for the Homecoming Queen and her court, as Freshman Maid led the procession with Freshman Class President, Mitch Rayburn. Sophomore maid was escorted down the 50-yard line by Sophomore Class President Craig Moore. The Junior Class Maid was escorted by Junior Class President Mark Wilson. Senior Class Vice-President guided the Senior Maid, and the Maid of Honor, was escorted by SBA Vice-President. Finally, the court presented its Queen to a standing ovation, as she was escorted by SBA President Hal Fisher. The cheering crowd welcomed their court and the Choctaws as they thundered back on to the field for the second half of the battle. As the sun's last rays fell upon the field of play, the Choctaws made a last stand against the Pacers, but in the last minute of play, the Pacers took a 1 point lead at 29-28 and held it until the final buzzer.

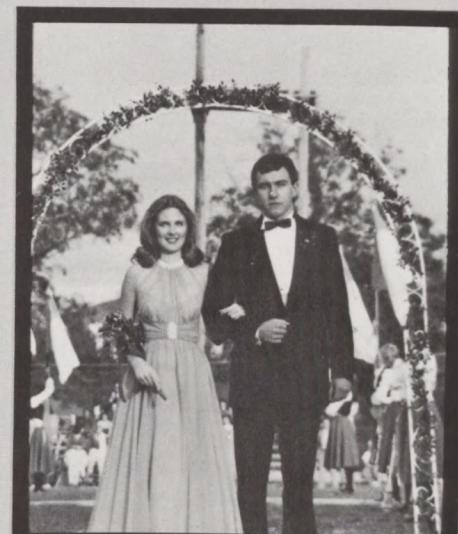

The narrow loss was redeemed for many by a Big Mac or by dinner afterwards with friends, family, or that special date. For the partygoers later on in the evening, Homecoming at Shady Oaks Country Club was the highlight of the day.

STUDENT BODY

Spring Fever Day

The third annual Spring Fever Day was planned by the SBA for the month of April.

Activities were planned for the whole week with the climax on Thursday with classes being dismissed for the day. Students took part in games and entertainment on the quad, while the cafeteria served lunch and supper on the patio. This week was established under the SBA president, Tom Alexander.

ASSOCIATION-EVENTS

Clash of Classes

Rivalry, spirit and fun is what clash of the classes is all about. The battlefield site chosen was the field next to Whittington dormitory. All four classes came ready for battle. The event was announced by Kary Whitehead (in the absence of Michael Smith). The events ranged from the ever-popular life saver relay to the orange pass. A new event this year, which owes its birth to Michael Smith, was the Honker Houser. The final conflict between the classes was the decisive battle of Tug-of-War. The final points were tallied, Sophomores in last place, Freshmen in a close third, Juniors bring in second place, and the Seniors in first place.

Carnival

The SBA carnival under the direction of Michael Smith was held on the patio. Any club or organization was invited to participate. Nenammosha operated the balloon throw, Kissimee had a cake walk, Mortar Board sold caramel apples and Civitan held the egg throw booth. These were a few of the usual booths. Several clubs had new booths this year like the beaus Kissing booth sponsored by all beaus in all four tribes. This was the "hottest" attraction with all the girls. Michael Smith's number seemed to be the most popular one.

Dr. John's Frisbee Show

Dr. John's world champion frisbee show performed on the quad for the MC students. Their performance included throwing a frisbee through a human tunnel, catching a frisbee in the air under the legs, and upside down. They also have dogs that can catch a frisbee in mid-air.

Sidewalk Circus

It was eleven years ago that Nick Weber made his first performance, alone on a street corner in San Jose, California. Now Weber is the ringmaster and founder of the Royal Lichtenstein Quarter Ring Sidewalk Circus.

The Lichtenstein Circus, consisting of Weber and four others, gave a lunchtime performance on the Quad. Jens Larson, an award-winning gymnast from Dartmouth, New Jersey, features in the aerial Roman Rings. Robert Lee, from the New York School of Circus Acts, performs the foot balancing. Nanci Olsen, from Minneapolis, is an actress and dancer; Stephen De Saulniers pantomimes and performs several magical acts. The circus performs in forty states and gives 225 performances in a period of just thirty-two weeks. They travel a thousand miles a week.

Weber's purpose for the circus is to perform close to the audience. Therefore, keeping alive is never a problem since the audience is so close.

Christmas

To give the students a chance to take a break from studying for exams and meanwhile to add to everyone's Christmas spirit, the SBA sponsored a Yuletide program on the Wednesday before finals in the TV lounge.

About 250 students, faculty, and staff enjoyed the hot chocolate, and donuts as the BSU choir sang and Biology professor Dr. Ted Snazelle read the story of Jesus' birth. A beautiful tree that took the place of the missing TV set and Christmas music provided by WHJT radio added much to the evening.

1981 RUSH

As fall started with the beginning of school so did rush. Rush began with the general rush meeting in the Hall of Fame room. Intertribal opened the meeting as each tribe battled with their voices. The next week started the coke parties. Each tribe put on their best dress and smile as the rushees visited them. The final activities before preference day were the ever-popular rush parties. Each tribe performed a musical play starting with Laguna as they went to "Hollywood". Nenamoosha was next as they traveled to Dallas. The truth came out as J.R. confessed to shooting himself. Tradition was the same with Kissimee as they dressed up in tux and tails. As always the Chris Butler take off was the biggest success of all. And lastly, Swannanoa went on a search for the intertribal treasure. The 1981 rush ended with SQUEAL NIGHT as the new rushees were thrown in the mud.

Hollywood or Dallas?

The 4th annual Shakespeare Festival was on Mississippi College campus. The Festival was established by Dr. George Pittman and is a coordinated effort of the English, Art, and Drama Departments. The year's festival staged four days full of Elizabethan music, drama, food and atmosphere.

The festival started with an outdoor concert of Renaissance music on the patio. Two Madrigal dinners highlighted this year's featural. The dinners were held in the Hall of Fame room. The candlelight dinners were an authentic recreation of a sixteenth century Elizabethan feast, and provided a roasted pig and a Wassail. Entertainment for the dinners were provided by Madrigal singers and the M.C. Tribal Players.

SPEAKERS

Mississippi College offers a wide variety of lectures, forums and workshops for the students. They may be sponsored by different divisions, clubs or individuals on campus. The following people were speakers during the 1981-82 session:

Governor William Winter

Senator John Stennis

Dr. Chester Swor

Take It From The Top

Take it from the top priorities, the theme for Spiritual Enrichment Week, 1982, dealt with these keynotes. What are our present priorities? Do they need revision? How can they be changed? These and others were discussed by four visiting personalities.

This event is presented every year in late February. Bradley Pope heads the committee with two students chosen in the fall by the student body. Spiritual Enrichment Week is one on the most important religious activities during the school year.

Doug Ezell is Associate professor of Christian Ethics at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas.

Mr. Ezell graduated from Louisiana State University, B.B. 1962 and Southwestern Seminary, B.D., 1965, Th.D., 1970, M.Div., 1974.

DEDICATION

Dr. Archie H. Germany has served as a professor of Chemistry at Mississippi College since 1946 and as Chairman of the Division of Science and Mathematics since its inauguration in the early 1960's. He has helped innumerable students in achieving success in their vocation in science and mathematics.

A native of Dixon, Mississippi, Dr. Germany graduated from Mississippi College in 1939 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Chemistry. He received his Doctor of Philosophy degree in Organic Chemistry from the University of North Carolina in 1943. He held several positions at the University of North Carolina. Following graduation, he served first as a Research Asst. for the University of Chicago and later as Research Chemist at Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

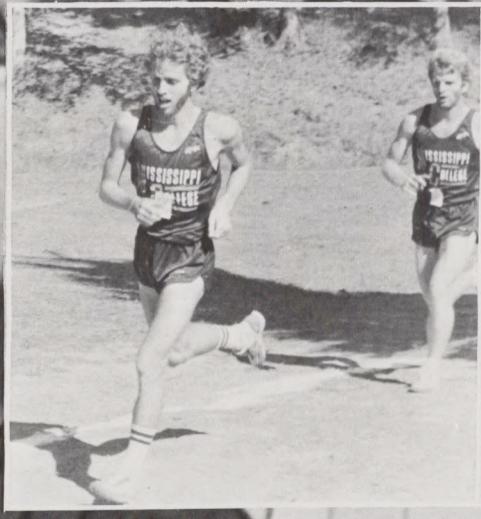

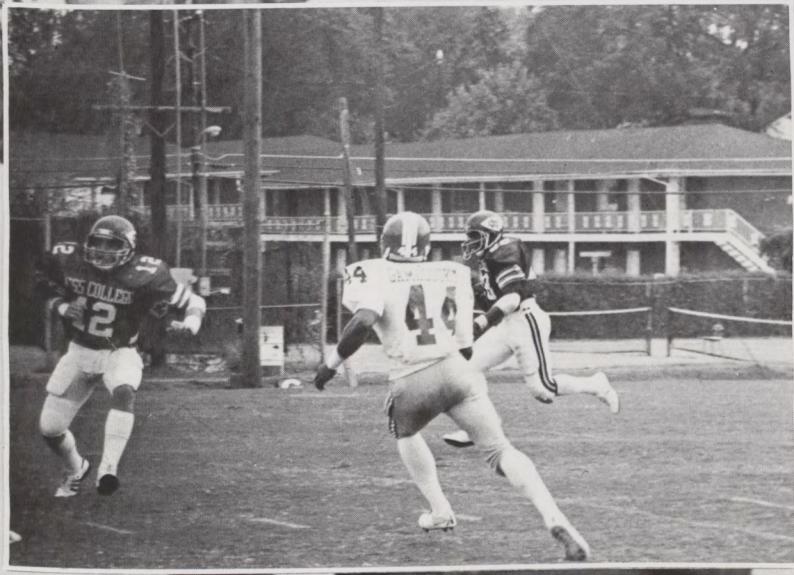

Dr. Germany has rendered much service in professional activities. He is a member of the American Chemical Association, and has served as President of the Mississippi Academy of Sciences. His presidential address, "The Role of the Academy in an Expanding Scientific Environment," has been published. He has done special research on Aromatic Nitroic compounds and is recognized as an authority on the subjects of Atomic Energy and Pollution. He is a member of Sigma Xi, Alpha Chi, and Omicron Delta Kappa. He is listed in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA and in AMERICAN MEN OF SCIENCE.

In recognition of his superior teaching, his scholarly achievements in his profession, and his continued dedication to learning, the 1981-1982 yearbook is proudly dedicated Dr. Archie Germany.

COMPETITION

MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE CHOCTAWS

The Choctaws proved the able Woodsmen in chopping down the Stephen F. Austin Lumberjacks, 17-14 in the opening game of the 1981 football season.

The Choctaws built a second victory by putting a run in the Blue Hose of Presbyterian College in Clinton, South Carolina with a score of 42-14.

The Southern Arkansas Muleriders gave the Choctaws a bad kick as they injured two quarterbacks and overtook the Chocs by a score of 21-9.

The Choctaws came back strong from their Southern Arkansas game and gave the Troy State Trojans a ride for their money with a winning score of 19-13.

The Jacksonville State Gamecocks had a reason to get cocky as they embarrassed the Choctaws in front of a home crowd with a score of 40-0.

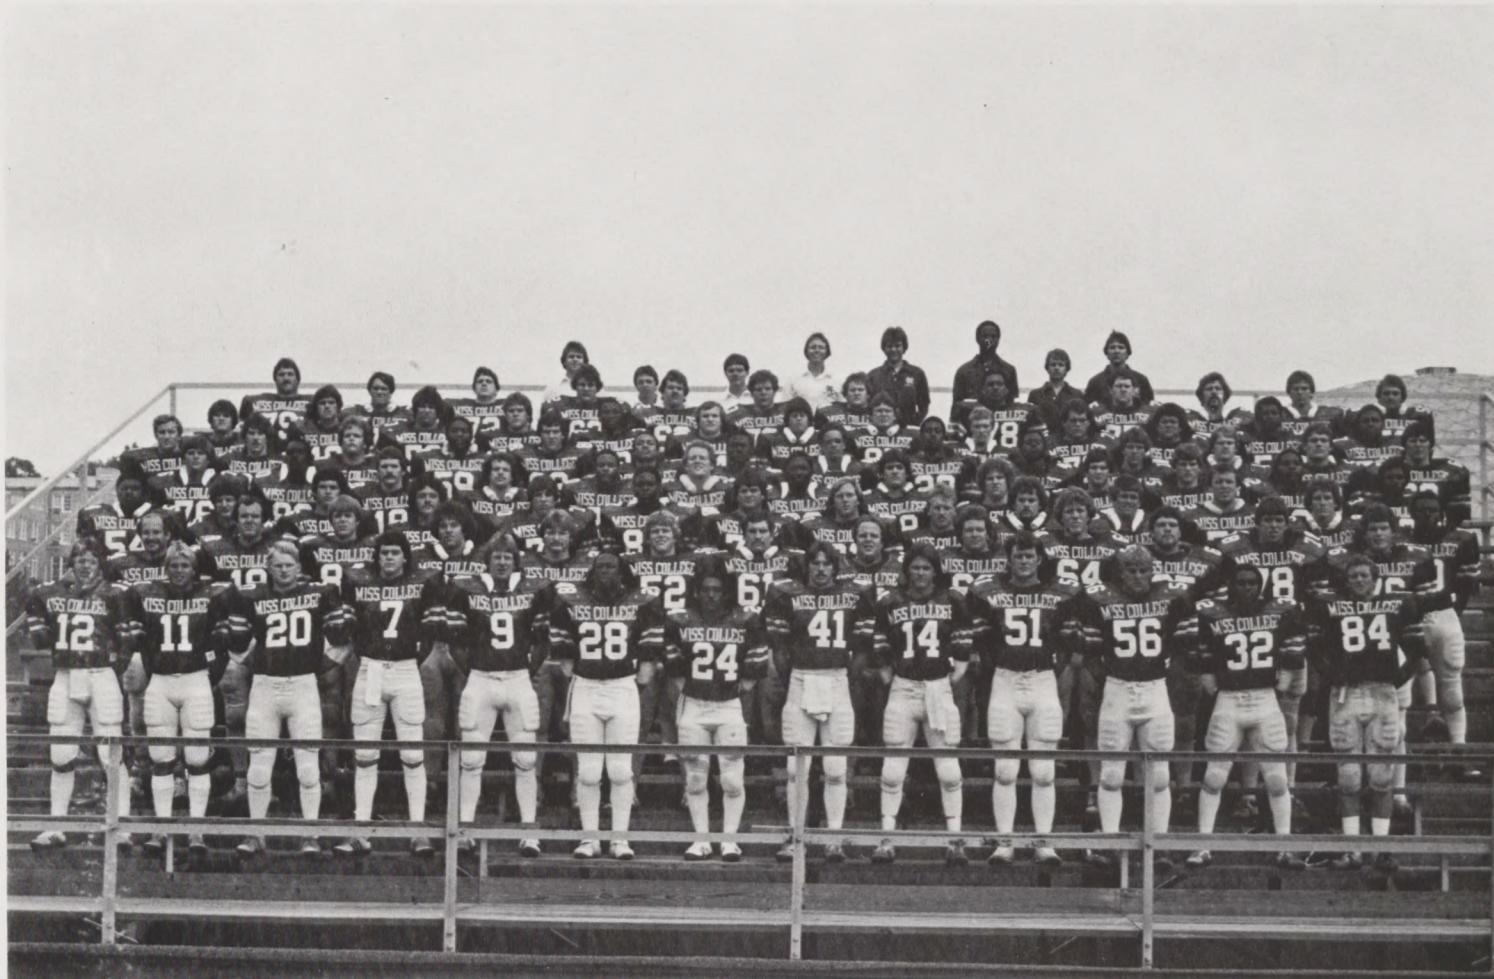

After a shut-out the week before, the Choctaws regained their credibility by winning an important victory of 14-10 over the Tigers of Ouachita Baptist.

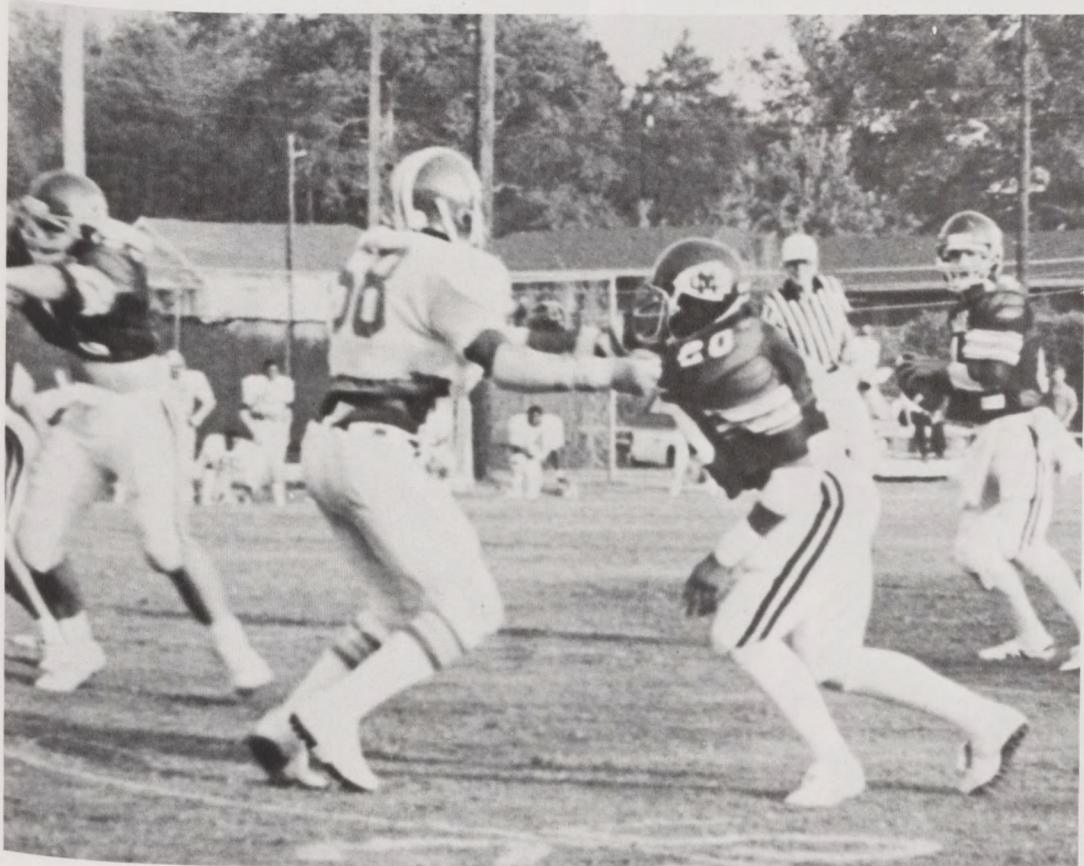

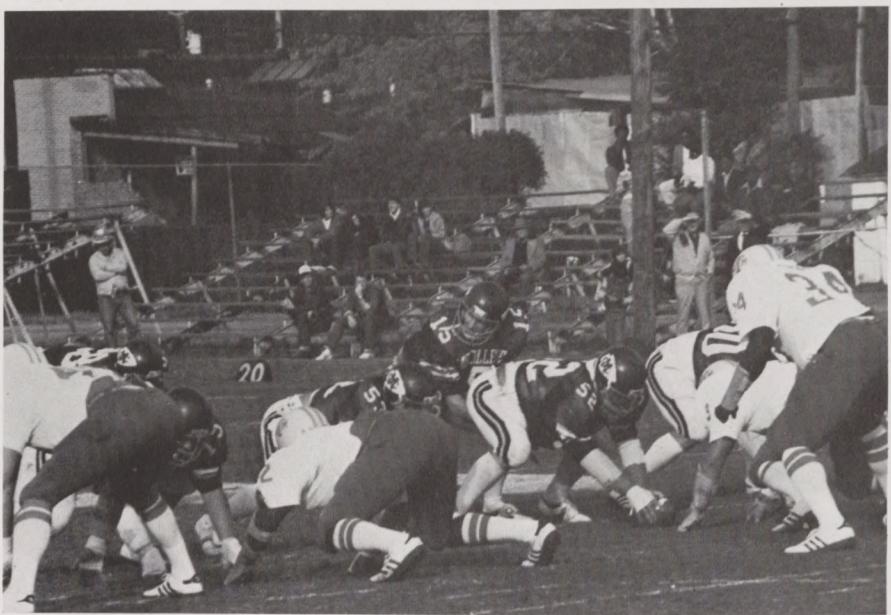

The Tennessee-Martin Pacers spoiled the Choctaws' Homecoming game with a close 29-28 last-minute victory.

Taking advantage of having the home field for the last time in the 1981 season, the Choctaws took the Livingston University Tigers by the tail and didn't let go until they walked away with a 37-17 victory.

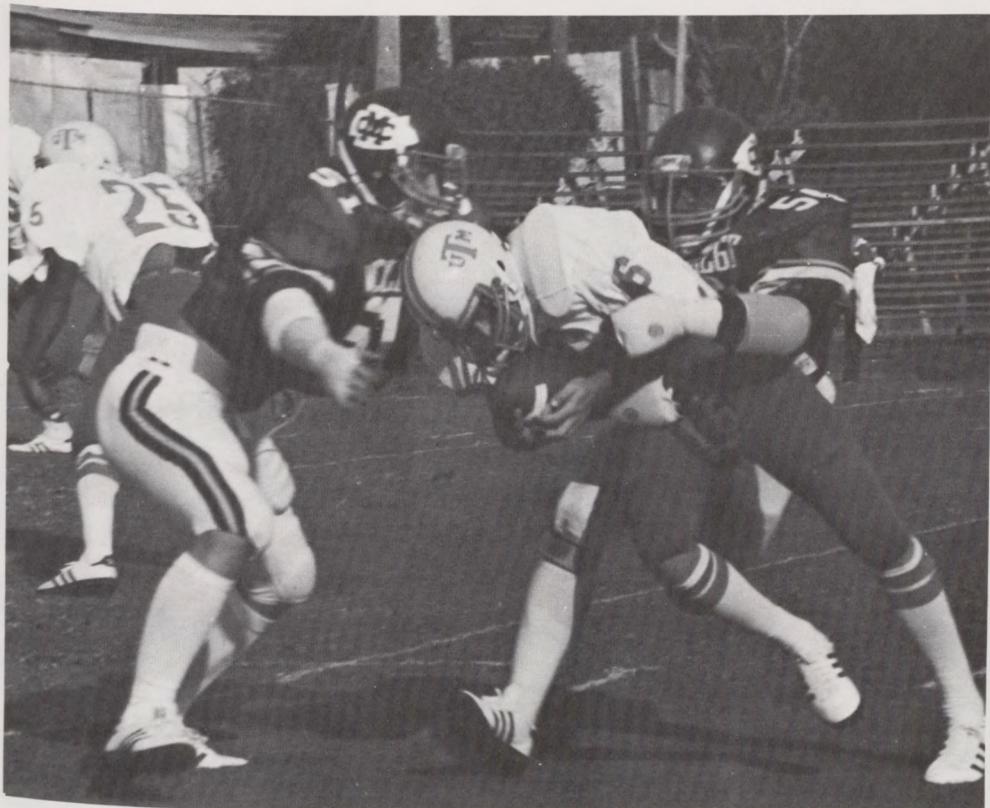

The night of Nov. 7 belonged to Choctaws and Major Everett, who rushed for 307 yards and scored three touchdowns as the Chocs thrashed their arch rival, the Delta Statesmen, 38-21. In winning the game the Chocs received the Heritage Bell for the third consecutive year.

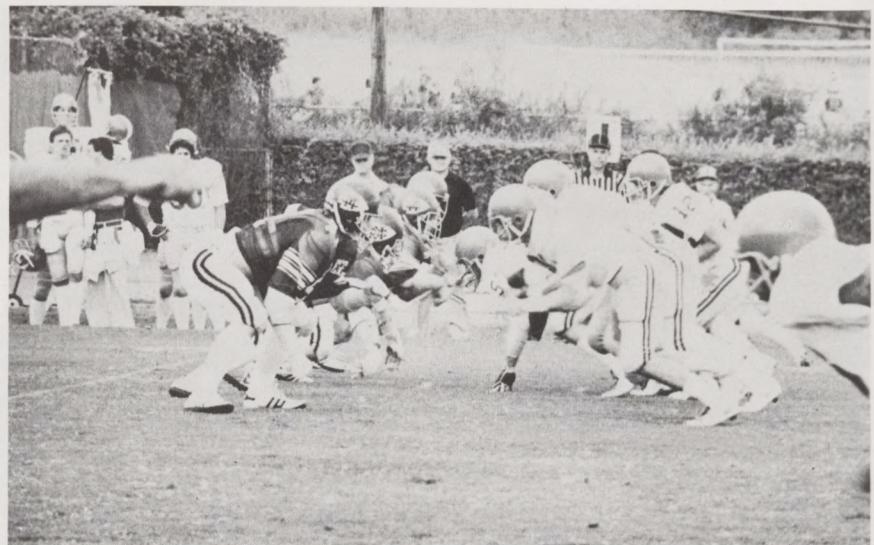

After assuring themselves of a winning season, the Choctaws ended their season on a sour note as they fell to the nationally ranked University of North Alabama Lions 37-23 at Florence, Alabama.

MC has a great Athletic Department this year but if there weren't any spirit, there truly would be no drive. That is where the 1981-82 Choctaw Cheerleaders come in. The cheerleaders were ranked in the top 10 at UCA Camp in Memphis, TN. this summer. The 1981-82 squad is the largest in MC history with 14 members. The pep rallys have been very successful and all the Chocs need to get in there and cheer for the Choctaws' best squad every.

Coach Billy Lamb's MC track team in 1982 was looking to make a return to the glory years of the late 1970's, and with several quality returnees and a couple of promising freshmen, it looked as if the first steps were being taken.

The best of the veterans were All-Americans Alvin Kidd and Tony Farris. Kidd set a school record in the discus and placed in the NCAA Division II meet in 1981. Farris scored in the NCAA II cross-country meet in 1980, and qualified for the Nationals again in 1981.

A third returning school record holder was Jimmy Clarke in the hammer. Others National qualifiers—Mark Burton, Mike Green, and Aundra Kohlheim—bolstered the Chocs' quality.

The Mississippi College Lady Chocs ended the 1980-81 campaign with a three point loss to eventual Region III champion Georgia State in the second round of the regional tournament.

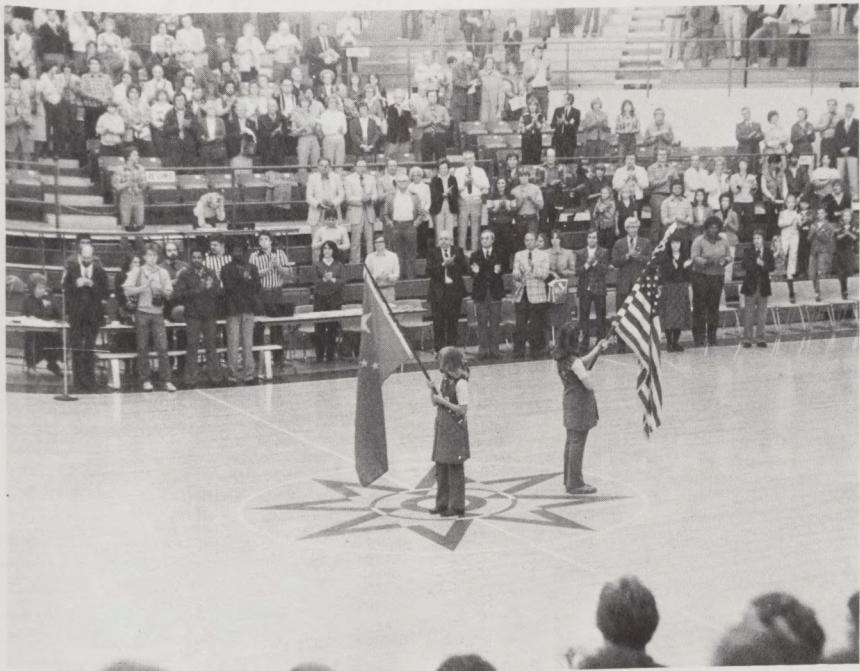

Mississippi College has strengthened its schedule with the addition of such national powers as the University of Texas and Stephen F. Austin. Other opponents include defending national champions Louisiana Tech, Jackson State, Delta State, Ole Miss, and the University of Southern Mississippi. The Lady Chocs encounter a tough schedule with the biggest and what was the best rebounding team that Mississippi College has ever had. The Lady Chocs have six players 5-11 or taller and have several quality guards to go along with the big players. The Lady Chocs improved on last year's 20-13 record against this strong schedule despite the loss of two starters, so far this season their record is 13-5. Returning are three starters and most of the bench strength from last year.

Durward Smith, a man who has compiled one of the most enviable records in girls basketball in the state, is in his fifth year as head coach of the Mississippi College Lady Chocs. Recognized as one of the top girls basketball coaches in the state, Coach Smith has accumulated a coaching record of 644 wins and 161 losses over his career.

During Smith's years at MC the Lady Chocs have twice gone to the National Women's Invitational Tournament. Coach Smith was selected as one of the top twenty coaches in the nation during the 1979-80 season. Glenda Carpenter Holleyman is beginning her fourth year as assistant basketball coach.

As a graduate of Monticello High School, 1972 and Mississippi College in 1976, she was a former Lady Choc and she received various honors for her accomplishments. She was graduate assistant at Baylor University where she completed her Masters.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

The MC Basketball Program showed heart for the 1981-82 season. The coaching staff had good reason to be optimistic. The only starter lost from the 1980-81 team was Mike Hurst. The Chocs returned six players that were involved in the starting rotation. They were seniors David Little, Sam Lee, and juniors Curtis Stringfellow, Ricky Stone, Anthony Hicks, and Felix Johnson. The addition of junior college transfers Lee McMillan and Michael Brown and senior college transfer Carlos Ford enabled the coaching staff to have more experience than the Choctaws have had since the 1978 GSC championship team.

MC had some other returning players and new recruits that began to contribute as they receive more experience. Jeff Clark, Dean Shaw, and Alan Dedeaux are good basketball players that have not had enough playing time at this time to determine how well they can perform on the collegiate level. The team needs one of these smaller players to develop into a leader and ballhandler to replace the generalship given to Chocs basketball program by Mike Hurst. Prospects Dennis Smith, Jessie Kelly, Anthony Garner, and Kenny Seirp should be counted to help.

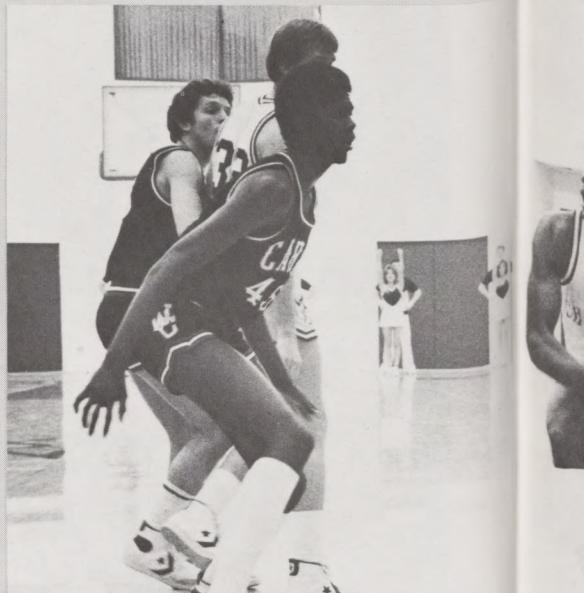

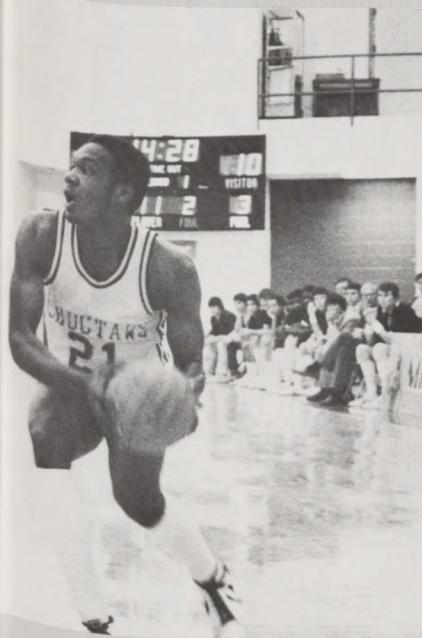

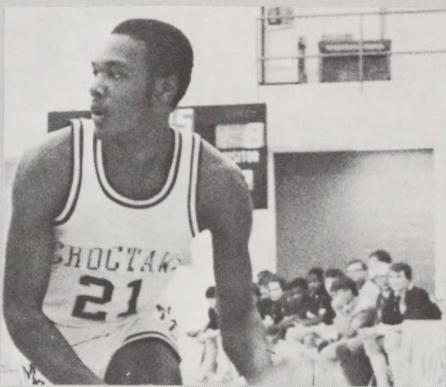

Coach Doug Hines is a man who knows the game "inside and out," Dr. Hines is in his ninth season as head basketball coach of the Choctaws and during that period he has established himself as one of the finest coaches in the business. He has earned the respect of not only fellow coaches in the Gulf South Conference, but the respect of Division I competition and all opponents.

Officers: Genie Scoper—Captain; Linda West—Sergeant; Kay Hammock—Sergeant; Margaret Puckett—Sergeant

CHIEF CHOC

Mississippi College basketball fans were the first to witness the Indian stranger who seemed to be looking for a home.

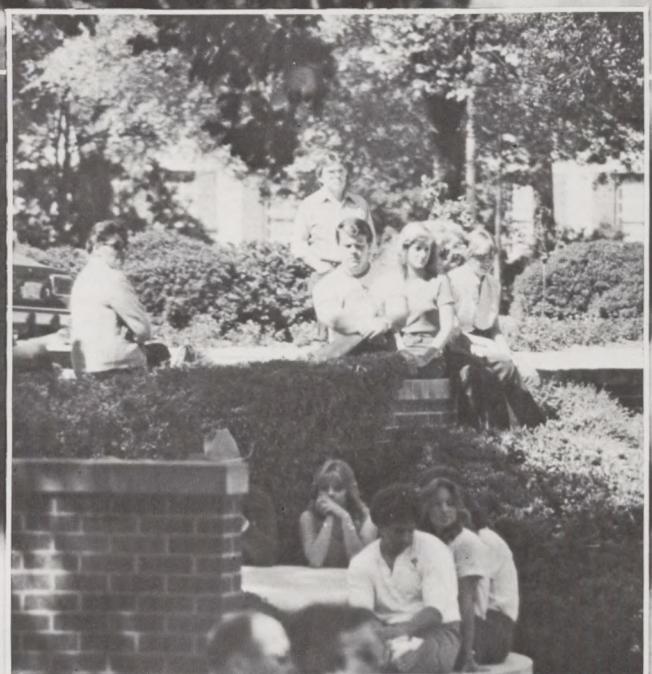

At a game in early January, he appeared, sans cheerleaders, sans escort, in an effort to capture the hearts of loyal Choctaws. Custom-made in South Carolina, The headgear, clothes, and shoes of the almost seven foot tall Indian presented an imposing sight. Fringed pants and jacket, authentic looking moccasins in a gargantuan size, and a face mask headdress assured him the look of a fierce Choctaw—an image somewhat belied by the cheerful expression on his face and decidedly pot belly.

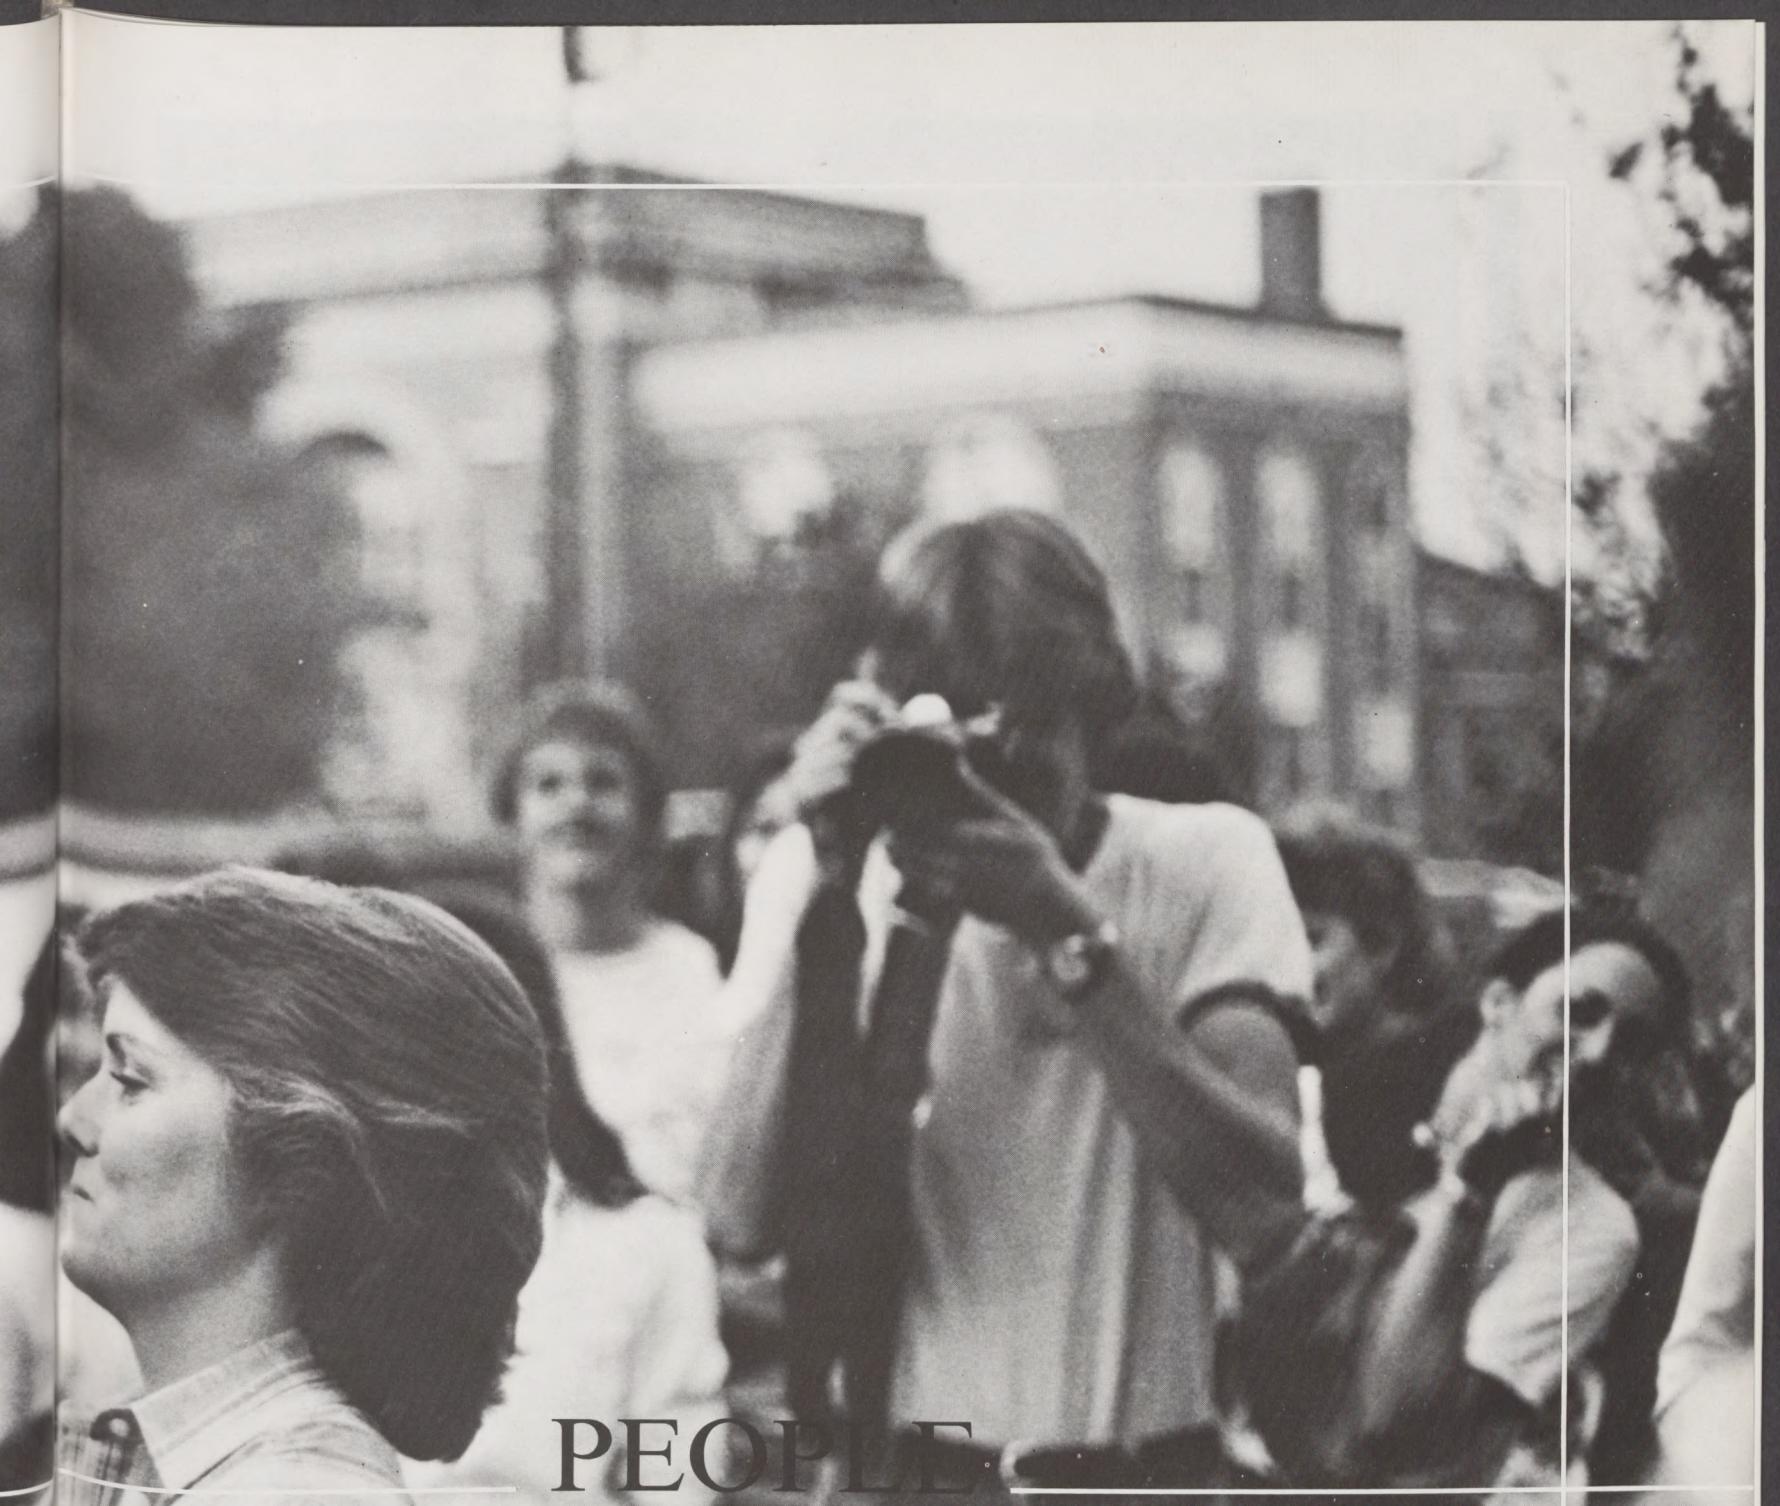

But he fulfilled his role admirable that first night, heckling the officials and cajoling the crowd for support. By game's end, he had made a place for himself in the annals of Mississippi College history and in the hearts of those who value school spirit.

The unidentified Choctaw had undergone his first public inspection; reactions were favorable. Certainly, it was a good idea for MC to have a mascot. But could he capture and hold the enthusiasm of students and townspeople throughout the year? Not without a name.

On Feb. 11, 1982, the Choctaw mascot was officially christened Chief Choc. With a new name he can now look forward to a bright future. He even gets to go to summer camp and learn the trade secrets of the very best mascots.

SNOW! SNOW! SNOW!

As students returned from Christman vacation, 2nd semester started off a little bit different from the rest. Registration was cut short by freezing rain and snow. Classes were cancelled for two days. By the second day Clinton was covered with around five inches of snow. Students didn't let the weather keep them in. Many cafeteria trays were "borrowed" which were used to transform the hills by Mary-Nelson and Hederman into a ski slope. You saw as many people out sliding as you did on Squeal Night.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The Divisions of Accounting, Business Education & Office Administration, Economics and General Business make up the School of Business. The course of study in the school is based on the realization that education for business, business education, office administration, accounting, economics, public administration or marketing is a life-long process, and that the School can make its greatest contribution to the process by teaching the disciplines which underly the practice of business. Details of current business practice, though important, can best be taught by business itself and learned through experience. The techniques, processes and procedures used in the everyday world soon become obsolete; but a trained mind that is disciplined, reflective and analytical is never out of date. Therefore, the School of Business and Public Administration seeks to provide the best possible foundation for the development of trained minds and mental attitudes that result in a lifetime of education.

SCHOOL OF LAW

Mississippi College School of Law, while relatively new in the hierarchy of legal education, began with a rich tradition bequeathed to it by its predecessor, the Jackson School of Law. This legacy started in 1930 when the Jackson School of Law was founded to serve the needs of legal education in Central Mississippi and continued until 1975. During its tenure, the Jackson School of Law, which was an evening program administered by practicing attorneys, produced notable alumni who gained positions of prominence as members of the bench and bar. The law school is open without restriction to all qualified students on the basis of merit, without regard to race, sex, religion, national origin, age or handicap, pursuant to the provisions of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation act of 1973 and is in full compliance with all laws concerning equal opportunity, religious and academic.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

The purpose of the School of Nursing is to prepare individuals to be professional practitioners of nursing and to aid them in finding life-fulfillment through the fostering of intellectual, emotional, social and spiritual growth.

The faculty of Mississippi College School of Nursing recruits and selects individuals who demonstrate the potential for learning and express interest in nursing as a career. The prehensive program of educational experience. This basic preparation proposes to develop professional nurses and to prepare the individual for advanced study upon completion of the program. The graduate of the School of Nursing will demonstrate a philosophy conducive to personal growth and fulfillment and a commitment to professional nursing as a dynamic role in the changing society. Mississippi College is accredited by the National League for Nursing.

DIVISION OF FINE ARTS

The Division of Fine Arts of Mississippi College is organized to offer curricula in art and music and to provide service courses in these areas for students of other Departments of the College.

The objectives of the Division of Fine Arts are: to stimulate a greater interest in and understanding of the arts as a part of a liberal education; to offer to those who wish to specialize in either the field of art or music an opportunity to do so; and to offer to the general student opportunities to gain experiences in art and music both as a participator and a spectator.

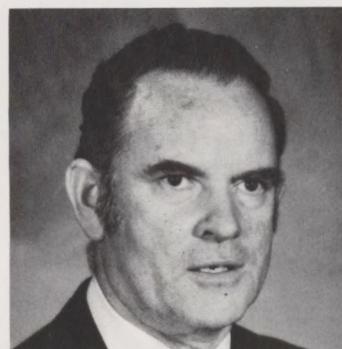

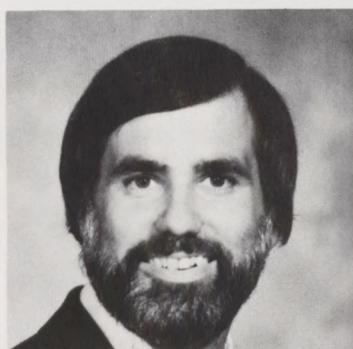

While other areas of learning may stress factual knowledge and scientific disciplines, the work of this division is primarily concerned with human significance of the facts and processes commonly known as the realm of aesthetics. In stressing the recognition and development of these values, the division makes a significant contribution to the general purposes and philosophy of the College.

DIVISION OF RELIGION

The Division of Religion consists of the Department of Bible, the Department of Religious Education, the Department of Philosophy, and the courses in New Testament Greek.

The Division of Religion proposes to contribute toward the intellectual and spiritual development of students at Mississippi College. It seeks to give them a deeper appreciation for the values of Christian faith and to encourage commitment to Christian ideals. The Division offers practical instruction in implementing these values and realizing these ideals. It proposes to build a foundation of intellectual excellence which will offer guidance and understanding in a changing world. Students preparing for church related vocations are urged to major or minor in the Division of Religion.

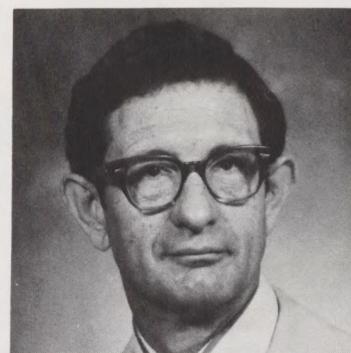

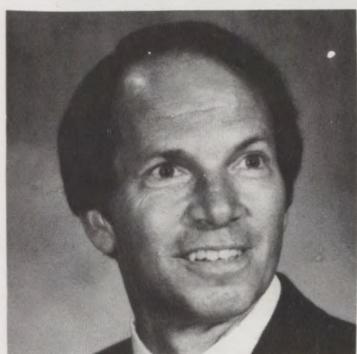

Dr. A.J. Glaze, Professor and Chairman of the Division of Religion

Dr. Joe Cooper, Professor and Head of the De-

The Circle K men continued their tradition of service to the campus and community. Along with two blood drives and the annual wheelchair push for Multiple Sclerosis, the club raised money for the March of Dimes by manning road-blocks and the Scream haunted house. Floats (Homecoming and Christmas parade), formals, and extensive fun are also included in this busy club's format. Their exemplary spirit swelled at pep rallies and games. This spirit even prevailed over Civitan in the annual flag football game.

LAGUNA SOCIAL TRIBE

Laguna Tribe attempts to emphasize the importance of love and sisterhood in their daily lives. A laguna is Loyal, Active, Gracious, Unselfish, and Always Ascending to greater heights of Christian Love. Their colors are blue and silver, flower is the blue carnation, and the symbol a blue mouse.

Laguna is been involved in various community projects, money-making projects, and service projects through out the year.

Though small in size Swannanoa has always been big in the eyes of its members. Their enthusiasm and work has brought much inspiration to our campus. They begin helping the students by having many bake sales, selling flowers for Valentines, and their concern for people continues to expand as they participate in the Easter Seals Telethon. Yet, being a Swannanoa member also means having to work very hard for what you want and often doing more than your fair share. Because of this and the dedication of all the girls involved, Swannanoa is always considered a strong contender in the activities on campus.

Kissimee's year was "in the news." Rush Activities centered around their pink and silver colors, pink elephants, and the theme of "The Times of Your Life." On squeal night, KT filled its quota by accepting 38 pledges who were later united with their big sisters at a famous pairs party. Through dreaded elephant court and a pledge-active retreat, Kissimee friendships were broadened. As current derby day champs, Kissimee also captured 1st place in the "I Love America Day" display contest, "Beat Delta State" cheering contest, and Powder Puff football Game.

The year's activities included secret football pals, a Halloween party for the CCCC, a program on financial budgeting, co-sponsoring a tacky ball, and an evening with Kenny Rogers! Combining work with play, Kissimees form everlasting friendships which will be unmatched in the years ahead.

COLLEGIAN STAFF

The Mississippi Collegian is a weekly newspaper supported and produced by the students of Mississippi College. The paper covers campus events and other news of interest to students and is distributed every Thursday evening except during holidays and exams.

This years editor was Mark Hester and Beth Hendrix was business manager. They were assisted by John Travis, assistant editor; Mike Ethridge, news editor; Judy Hines, features editor; Barry Bryant, sports editor; Jill Lovorn, copy editor; Don Strickland, head photographer; and a dependable staff of volunteers. Norman Gough serves as Collegian sponsor.

The work on each paper actually starts a week and a half before it hits the stands on Thursday. Staff members meet each Monday night to discuss story possibilities for the next week. Also, the articles for that week's paper have to be taken to Jackson to be typeset on Monday. On Tuesday the copy editor and a few others (sometimes) lay the typeset copy onto grid sheets.

On Wednesday headlines and ad borders must be laid down at the printers. On Thursday the paper goes to press and is distributed. During this time staff members still have to work on articles for the next week so they can be turned in by Sunday to be edited, and the business manager must sell ads to cover operating expense.

Despite this hectic schedule, this year's Collegian proved to be one of the best in recent years. For the second consecutive year the paper was published on a weekly basis, and for the first time in a decade the Collegian was a full format paper instead of a tabloid. Staff members: Across, Lori Smith, Eric Olson, Beth Blanton, Phyllis Woodard, Lecia McHann, Melanie Clevenger, Emma Miller, Bernie Miller, Jack Brown, Kevin Humphreys, Reed Pettey, Vaughn Tipton, Bruce McGehee, Richard Compere.

TRIBESMAN STAFF

Staff: Laurie Dingler, Karen Fisk, Beth Adams, Cindy Huffsteller, Carolyn Rooke, Iris Pogue, Romona Corley, Lynne Knight, Rex Mahon, Joe Wilson, Richard Davis, Glenn Frazier, Mark Hamilton, Don Netherland, Rockie Netherland, Patti Gregory, Peggy Parks, Marilynn Ashcraft, Carla Morris, Laurie Bailey, Tandy Booth.

Many people do not realize how much work goes into making a yearbook. All they see is the finished product. The process starts as early as April or May when students sign up for the new staff. The summer is then used to meet with the representative from Herff-Jones and make a page allotment. When fall comes, the real work starts and those long nights begin. Each section is divided up among the different editors. Work continues until that last deadline is sent in February. All the time and effort pays off in May as expressions of excitement and delight can be seen on the faces of faculty and students alike as they examine their copy of the TRIBESMAN.

WRIGHT, CAMERON H. JR.—Physical Ed. major.

It's been a great year!

Though there were times when I wished I could quit and go home (especially when everyone else was at home) and no longer be responsible, something kept me going—striving not only to reach those horrendous deadlines but to do a good job in the process. Call it self-motivation, MC's inspired "spirit" or whatever. Working as Editor for the past two years has been a lot of hard work but most of time, enjoyable work.

I must comment also on Mississippi College as a whole. The past four years here as a student have been tremendous, and MC as a college as been a significant part of those years. My attitude may not always be positive toward the campus, but I will always have good memories of those four years as I'm sure everyone else will too.

My Special thanks goes out to several groups of people—TRIBESMAN staff for sticking it out for the whole year, colleigan staff for pictures, copy, and support, all the groups of people who had to have their picture reshot for the fourth time, and finally our sponsor, Mrs. Janet Lee, who does all the proof reading and pays all the bills, even when we didn't have any money. There are many more who offered their support their talent and their understanding when things got rough. To all of you, I extend my deepest appreciation.

Memories are built during each year at Mississippi College, so we hope the 1981-82 Tribesman will remind you, in years to come, of some of your memories.

I hope you enjoy it—
